Main Attractions

What main films will play at the Ambler? This section lists the Main Attractions that we intend to play. This list is only an educated guess, though, since film release plans often change. (Additional unlisted films will also become available.)

Scheduling our Main Attractions is week-to-week. On Monday, we decide what main films will play starting that Friday. On Tuesday and Wednesday, we set the showtimes for the upcoming week and then update our website and telephone hotline. We also send out a weekly email (which you can receive by signing up at our website). Sometimes, we book a main film a few weeks in advance, which we post on our website’s “Coming Attractions” section.

For our latest Main Attractions plans, visit: AmblerTheater.org  (Or call our hotline at 215 345 7855.)

Hollywood Classics

The stars of Hollywood's Golden Age return to the silver screen every week this summer. We've got a little bit of everything: comedy, romance, action, suspense, and family friendly favorites. Whether you are enjoying these classics for the first or thirtieth time, seeing them on the big screen with an engaged audience is the perfect way to spend a summer evening.

Reduced admission for young patrons. Most of these Hollywood Classics are good for any age audience - and each film of the entire Classics series is only $3 for patrons 18 years old or younger. Also, if you dress “in the theme” of the movie - you get a free popcorn.

Not all of the films in this series are classics from the Golden Age. Some are edgier. They were not made for the entire family. But they definitely were made to be seen on the big screen. Are they new classics in the making? You be the judge. (We have included ratings for any PG-13 or R-rated films in the credits.)

Baby Face
1933 - 1 hr 11 min - USA - b/w - 35mm - d: Alfred E. Green
w/ Barbara Stanwyck, George Brent, Donald Cook
One of the most notorious films from the pre-Code Hollywood era, BABY FACE stars Barbara Stanwyck as a tenacious young woman who uses her charms to ascend the corporate ladder. Heavily censored at the time of its release, BABY FACE was pulled from theaters after being protested by theater owners and censorship boards. Luckily, a print of the original, uncensored film was found at the Library of Congress and the restored version provides better motivation for Stanwyck's hardboiled character. A young John Wayne makes an appearance in a minor role. Presented in 35mm with a vintage pre-show, including a newsreel, trailers, and cartoon. Preserved by the Library of Congress.

Mae West stars in I'M NO ANGEL, supported by Cary Grant in their second box office hit of 1933. (The first was She Done Him Wrong.) West plays Tira, a circus performer in a seedy company seeking a better life among the New York elite. West wrote many of her own films, but this was the first where she was given sole story and screenplay credit.

Thirty years after its release, BEETLEJUICE remains an imaginative and singular comedy. A recently deceased couple find that their former home is being taken over by an obnoxious wealthy family. They enlist the help of the notoriously sleazy ghost Beetlejuice to frighten the family out of the house. Michael Keaton steals the show in this inventive horror-comedy hybrid from Tim Burton.

Retirement comes sooner than anyone expects—and often before many people have the chance to prepare. In order to live in retirement—the way you want to live—you have to plan. The sooner you begin, the greater opportunity you will have to accumulate the wealth you will need to live a long and comfortable life.
