When will films play?
Main Attractions

Film Booking. Our main films play week-to-week from Friday through Thursday. Every Monday we determine what new films will start on Friday, what current films will end on Thursday, and what current films will continue through Friday for another week. All films are subject to this week-to-week decision-making process. We try to play all of our Main Attractions films as soon as possible. (For more info on the business of booking films and why some films play longer or sooner than others, visit our website.)

When Will a Film’s Run Start?
After we decide on Monday (Tuesday at the latest) what new films will start on Friday, we immediately let you know on our website and on our hotline.

We’ll send you an email message every Tuesday as to what is coming and going on Friday. (Sign up by emailing us at comments@AmblerTheater.org.)

If there is a particular film that you don’t want to miss, call our box office (215/793-4970), and leave your name and telephone number and the particular film that you want to see (on the answering machine is ok). We’ll put that on our “Film Call List,” and then we’ll call you on the right Monday and tell you that your film is starting that Friday. (Two requests: please leave a telephone number where you have an answering machine, and please don’t request every film on the flyer.)

And When Will a Film’s Run End?
This decision happens by the same process – we decide on Monday which films will end on Thursday. Again, we immediately let you know on our website, on our hotline, and in our weekly email messages.

Make Sure That We Have Your Email Address
We can keep you up-to-date on all our events and scheduling via our weekly email notices. Visit our website to sign up, and then stay plugged into our latest programming news.

Special Programs
Our Special Programs are scheduled for specific dates and times, which are listed in this PREVIEWS brochure. Check our website and hotline for any additions or changes.

My Best Friend
France – 1 hr 34 min – Patrice Leconte
With subtitles
Masterful director Patrice Leconte serves up this light, but thoughtful, comedy about a man who sets out to win a bet by proving that he has a best friend. Daniel Auteuil is superb as the Parisian antiques dealer who must engage in some tricky maneuvering to produce this nonexistent person. An amusing “buddy movie” that contemplates what it is to be a buddy.

Jindabyne
Australia – 2 hr 3 min – Ray Lawrence
A powerful and original film, set in Australia, about four friends who find the body of a dead girl on a fishing trip. They decide to wait a day to report the discovery, and when they return home their peaceful lives are turned inside-out by their decision. Gabriel Byrne and Laura Linney star in this coiled and enigmatic psychodrama.

Becoming Jane
UK – 2 hr – Julian Jarrold
Anne Hathaway nicely stars as the beloved British author Jane Austen in this visually vibrant period film that narrates her early years. Featuring a romantic escapade with a young Irishman, the story plays as a “real life” precursor of Pride and Prejudice. The fabulous ensemble cast includes Julie Walters, James Cromwell, and Maggie Smith.

Angel-A
France – 1 hr 31 min – Luc Besson
With subtitles
A morality tale that is alternately humorous and brooding, ANGEL-A tells the story of Andre, a former con artist whose past catches up with him. It’s sort of a hip update of It’s a Wonderful Life. Shot in lush black and white and set in Paris, this film marks acclaimed French director Luc Besson’s return to top form.

Lights in the Dusk
Finland – 1 hr 18 min – Aki Kaurismaki
With subtitles
This Helsinki-set film from the inimitable Aki Kaurismaki is about a friendless night watchman who gets lured into illegal doings by a sultry femme fatale and a corrupt businessman. The cinematography, editing and acting are all superb in this pared-down, minimalist little gem. Not much happens, except love, crime, betrayal and all of life. And great music.

Paris Je T’Aime
France – 1 hr 58 min – various directors
Featuring vignettes from twenty world directors, PARIS JE T’AIME is a series of short cinematic love letters addressed to Paris. The directors include Olivier Assayas, Joel and Ethan Coen, Alfonso Cuaron, Walter Salles, Tom Tykwer, and Gus Van Sant. The cast includes Juliette Binoche, Steve Buscemi, Willem Dafoe, Gerard Depardieu, Miranda Richardson, and Rufus Sewell. A delightful cinematic diversion.

<tr>
<td>Moliere</td>
<td>France – 2 hr – Laurent Tirard</td>
<td>With subtitles</td>
<td>Romance, creativity, subterfuge, and verbal repartee are among the pleasures in MOUIERE, a whimsical film that ruminates on the life of the renowned 17th century French playwright. While it examines the connection between life and art, this entertaining film is also laugh-out-loud funny. It's sort of a French answer to Shakespeare in Love.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>La Vie en Rose</td>
<td>France – 2 hr 20 min – Olivier Dahan</td>
<td>With subtitles</td>
<td>This dramatic French film captures the life and legendary music of singer Edith Piaf, including her many romances and scandals. Marion Cotillard gives a towering and emotionally riveting performance as Piaf that completely carries the film. Gerard Depardieu is a standout as the Parisian nightclub owner who discovered her.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Evening</td>
<td>USA – Lajos Koltai</td>
<td></td>
<td>EVENING presents a woman’s reflections on her life, as well as her daughters’ struggle to confront the reality of her impending death. Featuring one of the most amazing casts of actresses ever, including Vanessa Redgrave, Glenn Close, Claire Danes, Meryl Streep, Toni Collette, and Natasha Richardson.</td>

<tr>
<td>Once</td>
<td>Ireland – 1 hr 26 min – John Carney</td>
<td></td>
<td>ONCE is a charming Irish film about a Dublin repairman and a Czech woman who meet under unlikely circumstances. Their relationship blossoms as they share their love of music, put a band together, and prepare to make a record demo. A winning film with tons of great music.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Golden Door</td>
<td>Italy – 2 hr 57 min – Emanuele Crialese</td>
<td>With subtitles</td>
<td>Set in Sicily at the dawn of the twentieth century, this breathtaking film is about a poor farmer who decides to immigrate to the United States, and on the way falls in love with a beautiful and mysterious woman. An inspiring film about love, hope, and rebirth as the quintessential American dream.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Waitress</td>
<td>USA – 1 hr 47 min – Adrienne Shelly</td>
<td></td>
<td>This poignant character study stars Keri Russell as a Southern waitress and pie-maker whose life takes an unexpected turn. A humorous “slice” of small-town life about a woman caught between a bad marriage and a possible risky affair, WAITRESS does a great job mixing endearing characters with a tart sense of satire.</td>

Bucks Fever FilmFest 2007

We are happy to present the winners of this year’s Bucks Fever FilmFest. See the best short films from the area, with the filmmakers present to introduce and discuss their works. Reception to follow at the Medical Healing Arts Center at 9:15 pm. For info on seminars for actors and filmmakers visit the website at BucksFeverFilmFest.org or call 215-348-3913. Bucks Fever FilmFest is a program of the Central Bucks Chamber of Commerce in conjunction with the County Theater. (Each program is approx 2 hrs.)

Key Largo
1948 – 1 hr 40 min – USA – b/w – 35mm
Warner Brothers – d: John Huston – w/Humphrey Bogart, Lauren Bacall, Edward G. Robinson

Hot on the heels of The Treasure of the Sierra Madre, John Huston and Humphrey Bogart’s fourth collaboration casts Bogey as a man who goes to Florida to visit the family of a departed war buddy. A major hurricane hits and he finds himself trapped in an off season hotel with mobsters. Edward G. Robinson gives a blistering performance as head mobster Johnny Rocco.

To Have and Have Not
1944 – 1 hr 40 min – USA – b/w – 35mm
Warner Brothers – d: Howard Hawks – w/Humphrey Bogart & Lauren Bacall

TO HAVE AND HAVE NOT stars Humphrey Bogart as a boat captain in Martinique who reluctantly gets embroiled in political intrigue. A very young Lauren Bacall made her screen debut as a sultry nightclub singer. The sparks flew on the set between Bogart and Bacall and their off-screen romance became the talk of Hollywood.
HOLLYWOOD SUMMER NIGHTS

County: June 27 Wed 7:00 & 9:30

Jersey Justice
2006 – 1hr 40 min – USA – color - digital
d: John Charles Hunt
We welcome local filmmaker John Charles Hunt to the County Theater to present his film, JERSEY JUSTICE, which he shot in Doylestown and the surrounding Philadelphia area. A revenge thriller with an edge, it's about a suburban mom who sees her husband gunned down on the streets of Philadelphia. She then journeys to find the truth. The filmmaker and members of his cast and crew will introduce and discuss the film afterwards.

Lifeboat
1944 – 1 hr 36 min – USA – b/w – 35mm
20th Century Fox – d: Alfred Hitchcock
A group of British and American citizens from varying backgrounds are stranded on a lifeboat after a German sub torpedoes their ship. Complications ensue when a man that they pull from the water turns out to be one of the Germans from the U-boat. Hitchcock is at the top of his game in this claustrophobic character study.

Jane Austen Summer Nights

For three weeks in July, we will be showing three recent movie adaptations of Jane Austen novels. It's a mini-Austen festival! Check our websites for tie-ins with local groups. And be ready for two Austen-flavored feature films that we will be showing later this year – Being Jane and The Jane Austen Book Club. To learn more about literary adaptations, take BMFI’s July Film Education Course, From Page to Screen: The Literary Adaptation.

HITCHCOCK

The Birds
1963 – 1 hr 59 min – USA – color – 35mm
Universal – d: Alfred Hitchcock – w/ Tippi Hedren
Alfred Hitchcock's twisted and scary tale about some very menacing birds that terrorize a small town. The film's pioneering use of special effects, as well as the pure dread that Hitchcock created from simply showing birds landing on a playground, prove why he was rightly known as the “Master of Suspense”.

County: July 16 Mon 7:00
Bryn Mawr: July 19 Thu 7:00

Mansfield Park
1999 – 1 hr 52 min – Great Britain – color
35mm – PG13 – d: Patricia Rozema
A superb Jane Austen film adaptation, inspired by the novel and her letters and journals. Director Rozema injects strength and force into the novel’s heroine, and brings a contemporary perspective to the story. The film is elegant, finely performed, and quite moving.
Persuasion
1995 – 1 hr 47 min – Great Britain – color
35mm – PG13 – d: Roger Michell
w/Amanda Root & Ciaran Hinds
Based on Jane Austen’s final novel, PERSUASION is a finely-tempered film about a woman who gets a second chance at love. Amanda Root and Ciaran Hinds turn in deeply felt, and marvelously restrained, performances, and the 19th century setting is beautifully presented in this finely crafted film. Perhaps the “purest” of the recent Austen movie adaptations.

Pride and Prejudice
2005 – 2 hr 7 min – Great Britain – color
35mm – PG – d: Joe Wright – w/Keira Knightley
Not since Laurence Olivier’s famous 1940 performance has Jane Austen’s Pride and Prejudice been adapted for the big screen. Joe Wright deftly directs this much loved story of British class and marriage. It’s a superb film. (And for your aesthetic protection, we’ve taken the film’s one glaring weakness, it’s ghastly final scene that was tacked on only for “American audiences,” and moved it to after the end credits. Believe me, you’ll thank us.)

Sunset Boulevard
1950 – 1 hr 50 min – USA – b/w – 35mm
Paramount – d: Billy Wilder – w/ William Holden & Gloria Swanson
A great film noir about a faded and deluded movie star and the hack writer she “keeps” to help script her comeback project. The cinematography is stunning, the story is twisted, and Billy Wilder is at his most deliciously cynical. The underside of Hollywood has never been darker.

Ball of Fire
1941 – 1 hr 51 min – USA – b/w – 35mm
Samuel Goldwyn Co. – d: Howard Hawks
w/Gary Cooper & Barbara Stanwyck
A wonderful romantic comedy from Howard Hawks. Gary Cooper is a bookish professor who meets saucy burlesque performer Barbara Stanwyck while doing field research for an encyclopedia. The combination of Cooper’s naive scholar and Stanwyck’s brazen showgirl makes for movie magic.

All About Eve
1950 – 2 hr 18 min – USA – b/w – 35mm
20th Century Fox – d: Joseph L. Mankiewicz
w/Bette Davis, Anne Baxter, George Sanders
Bette Davis and Anne Baxter duke it out in this brilliant drama about ambition and betrayal. Davis is cast as an aging Broadway actress and Baxter is the young ingenue who insinuates herself into Davis’s life and career with the intention of usurping her.

The Three Stooges: Classic Shorts on the Big Screen
The best of golden-era Three Stooges in 35 mm on the big screen. Join us for a show of classic late 30’s/early 40’s Stooges shorts, hosted by the Three Stooges Fan Club. The show will be introduced and discussed by Club President Gary Lassin. Then join us Saturday, August 11, for a visit to Lassin’s Stoogeum, an amazing world-class museum of Stooge memorabilia, hidden away in Springhouse, PA. It will knock your socks off! (The Stoogeum visit is free, but you need to get an advance ticket at the theater.) Each film program is different and lasts approx. 1hr 40mins.
