When will films play?

Main Attractions

Film Booking. Our main films play week-to-week from Friday through Thursday. Every Monday we determine what new films will start on Friday, what current films will end on Thursday, and what current films will continue through Friday for another week. All films are subject to this week-to-week decision-making process. We try to play all of our Main Attraction films as soon as possible. (For more info on the business of booking films and why some films play longer or sooner than others, visit our website.)

When Will a Film’s Run Start?

After we decide on Monday (Tuesday at the latest) what new films will start on Friday, we immediately let you know on our website and on our hotline.

We’ll send you an email message every Tuesday as to what is coming and going on Friday. (Sign up by emailing us at comments@AmblerTheater.org.)

Make Sure That We Have Your Email Address

We can keep you up-to-date on all our events and scheduling via our weekly email notices. Visit our web site to sign up, and then stay plugged into our latest programming news.

Parking

Check our web site for parking information.

Pennsylvania Council on the Arts
The Reader
USA / Germany – Stephen Daldry
Director Stephen Daldry (The Hours) brings another literary gem to the screen with this adaptation of the novel by Bernhard Schlink. In post-WWII Germany, a 15-year-old boy and a much older woman come together for a brief, forbidden romance. The woman soon vanishes without warning, but they are reunited years later when he discovers that she is on trial for war crimes. Starring Kate Winslet and Ralph Fiennes.

Doubt
USA – 1 hr 44 min – John Patrick Shanley
John Patrick Shanley brings his award-winning play to the silver screen. Set in New York in 1964, a nun confronts a priest after suspecting him of abusing a young black student. A moral battle of wills ensues in this gripping story that is ultimately about the quest for truth. Starring Meryl Streep, Philip Seymour Hoffman, and Amy Adams.

Waltz with Bashir
Israel – 1 hr 30 min – Ari Folman with subtitles
BASHIR is an animated documentary from Israel about the 1982 War in Lebanon, featuring astonishing animation made from images originally shot on film that create a surreal landscape of memory. The film becomes bleaker by the moment, but it is a thrilling, subjective response to war. This is a cineaste’s marvel, and unlike any other film you’ll see this year.

Sunshine Cleaning
USA – 1 hr 42 min – Christine Jeffs
SUNSHINE CLEANING is a charming independent film about a family on the lower end of the Albuquerque food chain. The story is completely carried by strong lead performances: Amy Adams as the plucky older sister who starts a business that cleans up crime scenes; Emily Blunt as the dysfunctional and edgy younger sister; and Alan Arkin as the blunt-talking, lovably cranky patriarch. It’s a little bit like Little Miss Sunshine, Part 2 — but that’s a good thing.

Frost/Nixon
USA – 2 hr 2 min – Ron Howard
Frank Langella is captivating as Nixon in this shrewd drama about the historic 1977 TV interview of the former president by an unlikely television personality. The match between the two men is compelling cinema — more psychological than political in nature. FROST/NIXON is a beautifully acted film that is by turns suspenseful, funny and emotionally engaging. With Michael Sheen as David Frost.

A Word About Our Main Attractions:
We try to play each of the films on these two pages as soon as possible. Sometimes, however, because of scheduling conflicts or problems with print availability, we are unable to play a film before its video release. (The “theatrical window” is getting shorter and shorter.) We apologize for when this happens. Know that it is our top priority to play as many great films for you as possible. For more information, visit our website. Thank you.
MAIN ATTRACTIONS

Milk
USA – 2 hr 8 min – Gus Van Sant
Gus Van Sant directs Sean Penn in this drama about gay-rights icon Harvey Milk. Milk was an activist and politician, and was the first openly gay man to be elected to public office in America when he was voted onto the San Francisco Board of Supervisors in 1977. Penn, Josh Brolin, Emile Hirsch and James Franco star in this affirming and tragic drama.

I’ve Loved You So Long
France – 1 hr 57 min – Philippe Claudel with subtitles
This quiet French film starring Kristin Scott Thomas is about a woman who gets out of jail after 15 years and goes to live with her sister. The focused story slowly builds to a peak as the two women remake their lives. The masterful performance from Thomas completely holds the film together with its absorbing emotional power.

Slumdog Millionaire
Great Britain/USA – 1 hr 56 min – Danny Boyle
The latest from Danny Boyle is a vivid story of two poor kids from Mumbai, India that is told with an attention to character and culture that recalls Dickens. Surging with colors, music and the vitality of its youthful characters, SLUMDOG is tragic and joyful, brutal and beautiful — a real cinematic ride. Toss in a healthy dose of romance and this is an engaging journey from start to finish.

Synecdoche, New York
USA – 2 hr 4 min – Charlie Kaufman
Screenwriting magician Charlie Kaufman (Being John Malkovich, Eternal Sunshine) makes his directorial debut with this typically intricate, self-referential film. A theater director struggles with his art (and his women) as he toils on a wildly ambitious new play. This challenging film is a seriously bizarre contemplation of life, art, love, and death. And it’s required viewing for all serious filmgoers. Starring Philip Seymour Hoffman, Samantha Morton, Emily Watson, and Catherine Keener.

The Wrestler
USA – 1 hr 49 min – Darren Aronofsky
Mickey Rourke creates a galvanizing, humorous, and provocative lead character that is truly iconic. He plays a washed-up wrestler who is trying to make a professional comeback as well as put his personal life together. Shot in a rough-and-ready handheld style, the picture reeks with the atmosphere of low-rent dives and seedy clubs. THE WRESTLER is as direct and violent as its subject, but it’s also poignant and moving. With Marisa Tomei and Evan Rachel Wood.

The Boy in the Striped Pajamas
Great Britain/USA – 1 hr 35 min – Mark Herman
This unusual treatment of the Holocaust, from the point of view of a German boy, is gentle and haunting as it navigates its very dark subject. The film’s delicate touch has an almost fable-like quality, which allows it to re-examine its subject in a fresh way. But it is still powerful and moving, and it does pack an emotional punch.

Don Carlo

Verdi – Conducted by Daniele Gatti and directed by Stephane Braunschweig at Teatro alla Scala – Starring Ferruccio Furlanetto, Giuseppe Filianoti, Dalibor Jenis, and Fiorenza Cedolins – 3 hr

From the most prestigious opera house in the world, La Scala’s 2008-9 season begins with Verdi’s DON CARLO, regarded by Verdians today as the composer’s richest, and possibly greatest work, with moments of overwhelming power and presence.

February 15, Sunday, 1:00 pm

Don Giovanni

Mozart – Conducted by Bertrand de Billy and directed by Claus Guth at the Salzburg Festival – Starring Christopher Maltman, Erwin Schrott, Dorothea Röschmann – 3 hr 20 min

Composer Charles Gounod praised this opera, based on the legend of Don Juan, as “a work without blemish, of uninterrupted perfection.” This production gives Mozart’s masterpiece a surreal treatment, thanks to inventive staging by director Claus Guth and set designer Christian Schmidt.

March 22, Sunday, 1:00 pm

Il Trittico

Puccini – Conducted by Riccardo Chailly and directed by Luca Ronconi at La Scala. Starring Juan Pons, Miro Dvorski, Paoletta Marrocu – 3 hr 20 min

IL TRITTICO is comprised of three one-act operas – Il Tabarro, Suor Angelica, and Gianni Schicchi. This 2008 production, directed by Luca Ronconi and conducted by Riccardo Chailly, was performed at La Scala to commemorate the 150th Anniversary of Puccini’s birth.

April 19, Sunday, 1:00 pm

Rigoletto

Verdi – Conducted by Massimo Zanetti and directed by Stefano Vizioli at the Teatro Regio, Parma (Verdi Festival 2008) – Starring Leo Nucci, Francesco Demuro, Désirée Rancatore – 2 hr 30 min

This classical production of RIGOLETTO, one of Verdi’s most beloved operas, earned rave reviews at this year’s Verdi Festival in Parma. Master baritone Leo Nucci’s haunting performance as the title character steals the show, and no wonder – he’s performed the role over 400 times.

May 17, Sunday, 1:00 pm

The Coronation of Poppea (L’incoronazione di Poppea)

Monteverdi – Conducted by Emmanuelle Haim and directed by Robert Carsen at the Glyndebourne Festival – Starring Danielle de Niese, Sonya Yoncheva, Simona Mihai – 2 hr 20 min

International star Danielle de Niese returns to Glyndebourne as Poppea, the amoral and relentlessly ambitious heroine of Claudio Monteverdi’s last opera. Baroque specialist Emmanuelle Haim conducts the Orchestra of the Age of Enlightenment.

---

June 7, Sunday, 12:30 pm

Julius Caesar (Giulio Cesare)

Handel – Conducted by William Christie and directed by David McVicar and Robin Lough at the Glyndebourne Festival – Starring Sarah Connolly, Danielle de Niese – 3 hr 46 min

Director David McVicar sets this acclaimed production of the Handel favorite in the early 20th century, during a period of British colonialism in Egypt. A highlight is the brilliant performance by Danielle de Niese, one of opera’s youngest stars, in her breakout role as Cleopatra.

AMBLER THEATER: A CAUSE FOR CELEBRATION

After a year of increased programming and activities in our new front auditorium and five years of continued growth, the Ambler Theater is grateful to all of the individuals, foundations and companies that have made it possible. Thank you for all of your help and support.

CONSIDER A YEAR-END GIFT.

Please consider making a tax-deductible gift to the nonprofit Ambler Theater and be part of the continued renovation of this cultural asset. Your gift will be matched dollar-for-dollar by a recently received grant — up to $74,000.

OUR NEXT PRIORITY
