Main Attractions

What films will play? This section lists some of the main films we’ll play in the next few months. Additional unlisted films will also become available. Visit our website for the latest info on what films are upcoming.

When will films play? We determine each Monday what main films will play starting on Friday. On Tuesday, we set the upcoming week’s schedule and then update our website and our telephone hotline. We’ll also send you a weekly email, if you sign up at our website. (We sometimes also book films more than a week ahead of time, which we post in the “Coming Attractions” section of our website; however, those bookings are only tentative and subject to change.)

The City of Your Final Destination

UK – 1 hr 58 min – James Ivory
A young American academic tries to persuade the heirs of a celebrated novelist to allow him to write an authorized biography. He then turns up uninvited on the family’s doorstep in Uruguay to make his case. This sophisticated drama about love and literary matters is skillfully presented by the “Merchant-Ivory” team of James Ivory, director, and Ruth Prawer Jhabvala, writer. With Anthony Hopkins and Laura Linney.

Please Give

USA – 1 hr 31 min - Nicole Holofcener
PLEASE GIVE is writer/director Nicole Holofcener’s perceptive and devastatingly funny take on modern life’s contradictions, good intentions and shaky moral bearings. Set in New York, the primary story is about a family that buys an adjoining apartment from an elderly woman. But they can’t take possession until she passes away. This tone-perfect film presents a subdued, almost Rohmer-like morality tale. With Catherine Keener, Amanda Peet, Oliver Platt and Rebecca Hall.

Micmacs

France – 1 hr 44 min - Jean-Pierre Jeunet with subtitles
The director of the beloved Amelie brings his trademark whimsical style back to the screen with this wacky tale of a video store clerk who tries to bring down two Parisian arms dealers. Jeunet’s hyperactive imagination is applied to a 40’s-style caper film with startling results. And it almost feels like a silent film, given the sparse dialogue.

Mother and Child

USA – 2 hr 6 min – Rodrigo Garcia
Three women’s lives share a common core: they have been profoundly affected by adoption. Rodrigo Garcia’s reputation as a writer for women will increase with MOTHER AND CHILD, an insightfully observed and exceptionally acted ensemble piece. In particular, it spotlights wonderful performances by Naomi Watts, Annette Bening and Samuel L. Jackson. The cast also includes Kerry Washington, Jimmy Smits, David Morse, and Amy Brenneman.

Exit Through the Gift Shop

USA/UK – 1 hr 26 min – Banksy
This film by the elusive graffiti artist Banksy was the hottest ticket at the 2010 Sundance Film Fest. Most art documentaries are dull, glowing tributes to their subjects. Not so with EXIT, a raucously entertaining romp through the contemporary art world, which folds back on itself to examine the would-be filmmaker. This postmodern lark could be a whole new subgenre: the prankumentary.
Main Attractions

Wild Grass
France – 1 hr 53 min – Alain Resnais with subtitles
Master director Alain Resnais, at the ripe age of 87, continues his career-long adventure in filmmaking with this playfully flamboyant melodrama. A lost red wallet is found, which leads to a freewheeling network of people. This engaging film explores chance and middle-age longing in a subtle and amusing fable of morals and manners. With Sabine Azema.

That Evening Sun
USA – 1 hr 50 min – Scott Teems
Hal Holbrook stars as an aging Tennessee farmer who, frustrated with being confined to a nursing facility, breaks out and walks all the way home, only to discover that his son has leased the farm to another family. Things then turn nasty. Holbrook carries this atmospheric regional film as an irascible old curmudgeon who will not go gentle into that good night.

Limited Engagements
We try to play each of our Main Attractions films for a full multi-week run. Sometimes, however, we are unable to play a film in a timely or complete way, and it becomes a question of either squeezing them in or not playing them at all. We then often schedule those films for a couple of mid-week screenings, called Limited Engagements. Make sure that you sign up for our weekly email blast, so that you don’t miss these short, last-chance screenings.

Coco Chanel and Igor Stravinsky
France – 1 hr 58 min – Jan Kounen with subtitles
This French drama depicts the brief and tumultuous affair between these two famous artists. Following on the heels of Coco Before Chanel, the movie is like the next chapter of a very handsome book. Beautifully shot with robust visuals that are often set to Stravinsky’s music, COCO AND STRAVINSKY is a pleasure.

The Kids are All Right
USA – 1 hr 44 min – Lisa Cholodenko
Two teenage children get the idea to seek out their unknown birth father and introduce him to their two mothers (Annette Bening and Julianne Moore). Once the donor (Mark Ruffalo) is found, household dynamics quickly become scrambled and confused. A crowd-pleasing, feel-good comedy for an era in which the very definition of “family” is up for grabs.

Get Low
USA – 1 hr 42 min – Aaron Schneider
Robert Duvall shines as a back woods coot who decides to throw a funeral party for himself – before he dies. Set in the Depression, the film has the feel of an American classic. Bill Murray is excellent as a slightly shady (what did you expect?) funeral director. With a mix of sly humor, homespun grace and affecting poignancy, GET LOW casts an irresistible spell. A real treat.
Hollywood Classics

Sabrina
1954 – 1 hr 53 min – USA – b/w – 35mm
Paramount – d: Billy Wilder – w/Audrey Hepburn, Humphrey Bogart, William Holden

The charming Cinderella story of two rich brothers and the chauffeur’s daughter Sabrina. Bogart is all work and Holden is all playboy, but when Hepburn returns from Paris all grown up and glamorous, both fall under her spell. (You can see one of Hepburn’s dresses from the film, designed by Edith Head, in the James A. Michener Art Museum exhibit, Icons of Costume: Hollywood’s Golden Era and Beyond.)

Every Thursday this summer the greatest stars of Hollywood return to the silver screen. Audrey Hepburn, Humphrey Bogart, Gene Kelly, Cary Grant, Marilyn Monroe, John Wayne, Vincent Price. Even Hitch steps in for a cameo. Engaging storytelling and memorable acting never fade. See these Hollywood Classics the way they were intended to be seen: in a packed auditorium and on the big screen.

35th Anniversary

Jaws
1975 – 2 hr 4 min – USA – color – 35mm
Universal – d: Steven Spielberg – w/Roy Scheider, Robert Shaw, Richard Dreyfuss
Have you seen this film on the big screen? Now is the time with the 35th anniversary of its release. When a great white shark terrorizes the townspeople of Amity Island, a police chief, a grizzled shark hunter, and an oceanographer set out to kill it. Director Steven Spielberg invented the summer blockbuster with this white-knuckle thriller. Introduced by Rick Zengolewicz, local JAWS enthusiast and memorabilia collector.

Roman Holiday
1953 – 1 hr 58 min – USA – b/w – 35mm
Paramount – d: William Wyler – w/ Audrey Hepburn, Gregory Peck
In this quintessential romantic comedy, Audrey Hepburn makes her memorable and endearing movie debut. Playing a princess who is trying to escape from the rules of royal life, she falls for a reporter, wonderfully played by Gregory Peck. As the two explore Rome, she must make a choice between two possible lives.

Studio Rebels

Raging Bull
1980 – 2 hr 9 min – USA – b/w – 35mm
United Artists – d: Martin Scorsese – w/ Robert De Niro, Joe Pesci, Cathy Moriarty
Robert De Niro won an Oscar for his portrayal of boxer Jake LaMotta in Martin Scorsese’s widely acclaimed masterpiece, which paints a raw portrait of a tormented soul unable to control his violent outbursts. Marked by De Niro’s powerful performance and Scorsese’s gritty, black-and-white realism, the film also launched the Hollywood career of Joe Pesci.

Hollywood Classics

Some Like It Hot
Jack Lemmon and Tony Curtis star as a pair of musicians who go on the run after accidentally witnessing a mob massacre. But how can they hide? Dress as women and join an all-women’s band, of course! And then things really heat up with the arrival of Marilyn Monroe - the band’s curvy, blond, ukulele-playing singer. This legendary comedy was voted AFI’s #1 Comedy of All Time.

An American in Paris
1951 – 1 hr 53 min – USA – color – 35mm – MGM – d: Vincente Minnelli – w/Gene Kelly, Leslie Caron, Oscar Levant
Winner of seven Oscars, this delightful MGM musical extravaganza stars Gene Kelly as an American artist living in the City of Light, enjoying the patronage of a well-heeled, amorous gallery owner – and swiftly falling for a willowy French street urchin. All of this to the music of Gershwin. (You can see Gene Kelly’s harlequin cape from the film in the James A. Michener Art Museum exhibit, Icons of Costume: Hollywood’s Golden Era and Beyond.)

One Flew Over the Cuckoo’s Nest
Jack Nicholson stars in a memorable performance as R.P. McMurphy, a free-spirit who defies authority at every level. He ends up in an asylum after faking insanity and there he finds himself in an all-consuming struggle with Head Nurse Ratched. ONE FLEW is a biting, tragic satire about society and the human spirit. It won an Oscar for Best Picture.

Monty Python Fest

SPAM SPAM SPAM...This special evening celebrates the comic wiles of the British comedy troupe that made us sing about Spam and question the liveliness of a certain pet shop parrot. This Python Fest will include trivia, a silly walk competition, and prizes. We’ll also screen some classic sketches from their TV show and conclude with a screening of Life of Brian.

Life of Brian
1979 – 1 hr 34 min – UK – color – 35mm – d: Terry Jones – w/John Cleese, Eric Idle, Graham Chapman, Terry Gilliam, Terry Jones, Michael Palin
A religious satire about Brian, born in the stable next door to Jesus. Profane and very, very silly.

A Clockwork Orange

w/ Malcolm McDowell
You will never hear Beethoven's Ode to Joy the same way after watching Stanley Kubrick’s adaptation of Anthony Burgess' cult novel. Teenage miscreant Alex wanders aimlessly amid a bleak, futuristic urban landscape, stealing, raping and beating innocent people, all in an attempt to get his nightly kicks. A landmark film that is still disturbing today.

The Big Lebowski
1998 – 1 hr 57 min – USA – color – 35mm – Universal – d: Joel and Ethan Coen – w/ Jeff Bridges, John Goodman, Steve Buscemi, Julianne Moore, Philip Seymour Hoffman

Then, of course, there’s the screening of THE BIG LEBOWSKI movie itself, in which Jeff Bridges plays an aging Los Angeles hippie-type in a stoned update of Raymond Chandler. -- Yeah, well, that's just, you know, like, your opinion, man.

35mm or HD Digital?
Yes, we are 35mm purists and we show classic movies in the original 35mm film format, if we can. However, sometimes films are not available in 35mm or the prints are in terrible shape with scratches, bad color and unacceptable sound. What then? Fortunately, great strides have been made in digital technology and sometimes the quality of a movie in HD Digital is comparable to 35mm or even better. That makes HD Digital a viable option. Only a few classic films are currently available in HD Digital, though, so this is still only a limited alternative.

So, what’s the bottom line? We’ll bring you classic movies in the best possible format. Our default choice is 35mm film, but if the HD Digital format is better, then we’ll go with digital. We list the chosen format in the credits above and on our website, so you’ll know which format we’ll be screening. (One caveat, though: if a print is booked and listed in 35mm and it arrives in terrible shape, we reserve the option to jump to digital. So, check our website before you come to the theater to get any late breaking news on the presentation format.)
This Hollywood Summer Nights series contains the fixed schedules for both the County Theater and the Ambler Theater.

w/ Patricia Neal, Michael Rennie
A mysterious humanoid alien lands in Washington, D.C., with a warning to Earth's people to cease their violent behavior. But panic erupts when a nervous soldier shoots the messenger, and his robot companion tries to destroy the capital. A sci-fi hallmark that offers wry commentary on the political climate of the 1950s, this classic is less concerned with special effects than with its potent message.

Strangers on a Train
1951 – 1 hr 41 min – USA – b/w – 35mm
Warner Brothers – d: Alfred Hitchcock
w/Farley Granger, Robert Walker
A masterpiece of suspense with a large helping of guilt and anxiety, STRANGERS is Hitchcock at the top of his game. Robert Walker gives a mesmerizing performance as a peculiar man who meets tennis star Farley Granger on a train. Their casual banter turns to a discussion of strangers doing "exchange murders". Amusing, but one of them is serious.

Lawrence of Arabia
1962 – 3 hr 36 min – UK/USA – color – 35mm
Columbia – d: David Lean – w/Peter O’Toole, Alec Guinness, Anthony Quinn, Omar Sharif, Claude Rains
LAWRENCE is a sprawling blockbuster of an epic about an adventurer’s life in the Middle East. The film is exciting, spectacularly beautiful and, needless to say, was meant to be seen on the big screen. Peter O’Toole is astonishing — his piercing blue eyes and commanding presence highlight one of the most memorable performances of movie history. They just don’t make them like this anymore!

Bank robbers Bonnie Parker (Dunaway) and Clyde Barrow (Beatty) barrel across Depression-era America on a crime spree that makes them folk heroes. Stylish and sexy, the film shattered the mold when it came to crime pics, layering comedy onto mayhem and youthful criminality. And the cinematography is glorious.
