The Debt
UK - John Madden - 1 hr 52 min
A political thriller in which three Mossad agents hunt down and kill a Nazi war criminal in 1965. Thirty years later the agents, now national heroes in Israel, revisit the operation, which was not what it seemed. A well told story with a romantic subplot, THE DEBT stars Helen Mirren, Ciaran Hinds and Tom Wilkinson.

The Tree of Life
USA – 2 hr 18 min - Terrence Malick
Few recent films have generated as much speculation and anticipation as Terrence Malick’s THE TREE OF LIFE. The writer-director’s fifth film stars Brad Pitt and Sean Penn. It’s been described as the tale of a Texas boy’s journey from childhood innocence to adult disillusionment and his quest to regain meaning in life. Expect dazzling cinematography and inventive filmmaking.

Snow Flower and the Secret Fan
USA – Wayne Wang
SNOW FLOWER tells the story of the friendship of two girls over their lifetimes in China. The film has two separate but parallel storylines. The first is the period piece about the two girls. The second is a contemporary plot that follows the women’s descendants who struggle to maintain their friendship as their demanding careers and complicated love lives get in the way.

Submarine
UK – Richard Ayoade – 1 hr 37 min
SUBMARINE is the coming-of-age story of a sensitive teenager set in a coastal town in Wales. It’s a sweet-natured comedy that has been compared to Rushmore and The Squid and the Whale, but it also has a strong dose of French New Wave-style filmmaking. Made with genuine artfulness and passion, this delightful original is a joy.

Meek’s Cutoff
USA - Kelly Reichardt - 1 hr 44 min
Set in 1845, MEEK’S CUTOFF tells the story of a group of settlers that embark on a journey along the Oregon Trail. When their guide leads them astray, the expedition is forced to contend with the unforgiving conditions of the high plain desert. Inspired by a true story, this fine independent film is cerebral and astonishingly cinematic. With Michelle Williams, Bruce Greenwood and Paul Dano.
Main Attractions

One Day
USA - Lone Scherfig - 1 hr 30 min
ONE DAY follows a friendship between Emma (played by Anne Hathaway) and Dexter (Jim Sturgess), who meet on the night of their college graduation - July 15th, 1988. For the next two decades, every July 15th reveals how “Em” and “Dex” are faring, as their friendship ebb and flows with the passing of the years. Through laughter and romance, heartbreak and happiness, they begin to find what is important in their lives.

Midnight in Paris
USA - 1 hr 40 min - Woody Allen
Woody Allen's latest film is a romantic comedy about a family visiting the City of Light. A young couple, engaged to be married, experiences a profound transformation. A man with a romanticized view of the city finds that not everything lives up to his expectations. Starring Marion Cotillard, Rachel McAdams, Kathy Bates, Owen Wilson, and Carla Bruni.

Beginners
USA - Mike Mills - 1 hr 44 min
BEGINNERS is about a man who learns that his elderly father is gay. This off-beat film features captivating performances and a smart screenplay that mixes the styles of Charlie Kaufman and Miranda July. Director Mills breaks from conventional story structure to present this surprising and moving drama. Starring Ewan McGregor and Christopher Plummer.

Another Earth
USA - Mike Cahill - 1 hr 30 min
ANOTHER EARTH is an intimate drama to which science fiction adds a provocative, philosophical context. An astrophysics student at MIT is driving when she is startled to see a new planet in the night sky. In that moment, she causes a tragic auto accident. The planet she saw is a “mirror planet” of Earth, which prompts the possibility of visiting her “mirror life.”

The Greatest Movie Ever Sold
USA - Morgan Spurlock - 1 hr 30 min
Intrepid filmmaker Morgan Spurlock (Super Size Me) examines the world of advertising and product placement by financing this entire film through advertising and product placement. He gently mocks the whole enterprise by saturating his film with products and endorsements. This engaging and funny film takes marketing to the limit.

Limited Engagements
We try to play each of our Main Attractions films for a full multi-week run. Sometimes, however, we are unable to play a film in a timely or complete way, and it becomes a question of either squeezing it in or not playing it at all. We then often schedule that film for a couple of mid-week screenings, called Limited Engagements. Make sure that you sign up for our weekly email blast, so that you don’t miss these short, last-chance screenings.
Hollywood Classics
Every week this summer, the stars from The Golden Age of Hollywood return to the silver screen: Gregory Peck, Grace Kelly, Audrey Hepburn, Cary Grant, Judy Garland, Humphrey Bogart, the list goes on and on. Memorable acting in great films never fades. See these Hollywood classics the way they were intended to be seen: on the big screen in a packed auditorium.

Free for our young patrons: These Hollywood Classics are perfect for any age audience – and this entire Classics series is free for patrons 18 years old or younger. And, if you dress “in the theme” of the movie - we will give you a free popcorn.

Menacing Summer Nights
This series is NOT about classics from the Golden Age. These films are edgier. They're profane and violent and scary. And they were not made for the entire family. But they definitely were made to be seen on the big screen. Are they new classics in the making? You be the judge.

Chaplin in HD
We’re happy to continue our year-long Charlie Chaplin series. Chaplin wrote, directed, produced, and starred in some of the most popular and artistically heralded films ever made - immaculately constructed, deeply emotional, and always hilarious. This retrospective includes some of Chaplin’s greatest works, as well as some of his early shorts and lesser known features. All restored and presented in stunning HD Digital.

Come often and earn a free pass and more. Pick up a “Hollywood Insider” card at the start of the summer. For each film that you watch, whether Classic or Chaplin or Menacing, you'll get a stamp on your card. Get 5 stamps and earn a FREE PASS and concession voucher. Get 10 stamps and earn a restaurant coupon and who knows what else! (Check our website for details.)

The Importance of Being Earnest
PERFORMED LIVE on March 11, 2011
Roundabout Theatre Company, Broadway
This exciting addition to our LIVE Theater Series was performed in March on Broadway to rapturous reviews. It’s Oscar Wilde’s glorious comedy of wit and wordplay set in late Victorian England. Two young gentlemen pursue idle leisure, as well as romance, amidst confusion and mistaken identity. Towering over everything is the formidable Lady Bracknell, played to comic perfection by Brian Bedford. (General $18 / Member $16.)

To Kill a Mockingbird
1962 - 2 hr 9 min - USA - b/w - 35mm
Universal - d: Robert Mulligan - w/Gregory Peck
Harper Lee’s novel comes to vivid life with Gregory Peck in an Oscar-winning role as lawyer Atticus Finch. Set in a small town in the Deep South of the thirties and told from the point of view of Scout, his young daughter, MOCKINGBIRD bristles with period authenticity and color. Scout, her brother Jem and neighbor Dill live their childhood adventures, while Atticus defends an innocent black man in legendary courtroom scenes.

The Searchers
1956 - 2 hr - USA - color - HD Digital
Warner Bros - d: John Ford - w/John Wayne, Natalie Wood
A richly scenic film from director John Ford, THE SEARCHERS is one of the most influential westerns of all-time. John Wayne stars as a war veteran, who embarks on a long journey to find his niece, played by Natalie Wood, the survivor of an Indian massacre. One of Wayne’s best performances ever.
This Hollywood Summer Nights series contains the fixed schedules for both the County Theater and the Ambler Theater.

This action-packed blockbuster is director Steven Spielberg's first big-screen best. A new theme park is unveiled, where visitors can observe dinosaurs created by "advanced DNA cloning." But then the dinosaurs escape, forcing everyone to run for their lives. (This film also almost qualifies as a Menacing Summer Night. Almost.)

Duck Soup
1933 - 1 hr 8 min - USA - b/w - 35mm
Paramount - d: Leo McCarey - w/ The Marx Brothers
DUCK SOUP may be the most beloved of all Marx Brothers films. Groucho becomes dictator of the tiny country of Freedonia, but a misunderstanding with the ambassador of a bordering nation leads to war. The Marx Brothers are at their crazy best in this raucous political satire, in which Chico, Harpo and Zeppo co-star as spies and counterspies.

Modern Times
1936 - 1 hr 27 min - USA - b/w - HD Digital
Martin Scorsese - d: Charles Chaplin
Charlie Chaplin's brilliant satire of the machine age was also his last "silent," even though it also featured his first words spoken on film. The Little Tramp bravely shuffles forward into a maze of technology and modern society. Although barely in control of his own fate, he demonstrates pluck and endurance in the face of overwhelming forces.

Goodfellas
1990 - 2 hr 26 min - USA - color - HD Digital
Warner Bros - d: Martin Scorsese
w/ Robert De Niro, Joe Pesci, Ray Liotta
One of Martin Scorsese's best films - a quintessential look at "wiseguys." A young man grows up in the mob, advances and tries to make it big, only to see his fortunes unravel. Ray Liotta is great in the lead and DeNiro is amazing as always, but Joe Pesci is truly unforgettable in a riveting performance.

This supremely stylish Hitchcock thriller is about a photographer, played by Jimmy Stewart, who is confined to his apartment with a broken leg. Then, of course, there's the screening of THE BIG LEBOWSKI movie itself, in which Jeff Bridges plays an aging Los Angeles hippie-type in a stoned update of Raymond Chandler. There's mistaken identity, a kidnapping plot, rug micturation, and a ton of bowling.

On the Waterfront
1954 - 1 hr 48 min - USA - b/w - 35mm
Columbia - d: Elia Kazan - w/ Marlon Brando, Eva Marie Saint, Lee J. Cobb, Karl Malden
Marlon Brando delivers an astonishing, blistering performance as an ex-prize fighter turned longshoreman who struggles to stand up to corrupt union bosses. Masterfully directed by Elia Kazan, WATERFRONT won 8 Academy Awards. It jumps off the screen, even today, with its grit and immediacy and power.

Aliens
1986 - 2 hr 17 min - USA - color - 35mm
Fox - d: James Cameron - w/ Sigourney Weaver
The second installment of the “Alien” series in which humans battle a particularly nasty pod of creatures on a remote planet outpost. Sigourney Weaver is superb as Ripley, the chief who leads a crew of marines back to kill these menacing monsters. James Cameron directs and provides action-packed storytelling with exciting thrills and intense suspense.

Ambler: July 25 Mon 7:00
County: July 27 Wed 7:00

The Great Dictator
1940 - 2 hr 5 min - USA - b/w - HD Digital
d: Charles Chaplin
Charlie Chaplin plays dual roles: a Hitler-like dictator and a comic Jewish barber. Yes, the film is funny and filled with gags and pratfalls. But it is also one of Chaplin’s more serious works, with deep strains of sadness and tragedy. There are also wonderful moments of Chaplin pantomime: as he shaves a customer in time to classical music, and when he dances with the world globe as dictator.

Ambler: Aug 3 Wed 7:00
County: Aug 1 Mon 7:00

Bullitt
1968 - 1 hr 54 - USA - color - HD Digital
Warner Bros - d: Peter Yates - w/ Steve McQueen
Steve McQueen stars as a no-nonsense cop hunting the crime boss who killed his protected witness. This classic 1960s thriller earned immortality for its memorable high speed car-chase that roared through the streets of San Francisco. Nothing is cooler than McQueen’s Mustang. (Except maybe his shades.)

The film that secured Quentin Tarantino's place as a star director features two mob enforcers, a boxer, a gangster's wife, and a pair of petty crooks. They all intertwine in four tales of crime and redemption. With crackling dialogue and memorable performances, PULP FICTION was one of the most audacious and imitated films of the 1990s.

Kiss Me Deadly
1955 - 1 hr 46 min - USA - b/w - 35mm
United Artists - d: Robert Aldrich - w/ Ralph Meeker
Ralph Meeker is a perfect Mike Hammer, the toughest and most callous of all classic private detectives. This fast, moody, and very stylish film was years ahead of its time and influenced everyone from the French New Wave to Quentin Tarantino. The cinematography is dazzling. The script is crisp and heartless, complete with murder and mayhem. How did this film ever get made in 1955?

35mm or HD Digital?
Yes, we are 35mm purists and we show classic movies in the original 35mm film format, if we can. However, often films are not available in 35mm or the prints are in terrible shape with scratches, bad color and unacceptable sound. What then?

Fortunately, great strides have been made in digital technology and sometimes the quality of a movie in HD Digital is comparable to 35mm (or even better). More and more classic films are becoming available in HD Digital, so this is a viable alternative.

So, what’s the bottom line? We’ll bring you classic movies in the best possible format.
Our default choice is 35mm film, but if the HD Digital format is better, then we’ll go with digital. We list the chosen format in the credits here and on our website, so you’ll know which format we’ll be screening. (One caveat, though: if a print is booked and listed in 35mm and it arrives in terrible shape, we reserve the option to jump to digital. So, check our website before you come to the theater to get any late breaking news on the presentation format.)
C your future.

Chaplin's first feature, THE KID, follows a pair of con artists. One heaves rocks through windows; the other happens by in the nick of time to offer his services as an expert window repairman. It's a system that works for The Little Tramp and his tiny sidekick. And so does everything else about this beloved Chaplin classic. Shown with Chaplin's short, A DOG'S LIFE.

Warner Bros - d: Victor Fleming - w/ Clark Gable, Vivien Leigh

Director Victor Fleming's 1939 epic stars Vivien Leigh as self-absorbed, headstrong Scarlett O'Hara, a Southern Belle who meets her match in Rhett Butler, played by Clark Gable. It's a sweeping story that starts just as the Civil War is breaking out. One of the most monumental of all Hollywood films, we are pleased to present this on the big screen in a superbly restored digital version.
