Main Attractions

What main films will play at the Ambler? This section lists the Main Attractions that we intend to play in the next few weeks. Additional unlisted films will also become available. This list is only an educated guess, though, since film release plans often change.

When will these main films play? Scheduling our Main Attractions is week-to-week. On Monday, we decide what main films will play starting that Friday. On Tuesday and Wednesday, we set the showtimes for the upcoming week and then update our website and telephone hotline. We also send out a weekly email (which you can receive by signing up at our website). Sometimes, we book a main film a few weeks in advance, which we post on our website’s “Coming Attractions” section.

For our latest Main Attractions plans, visit: AmblerTheater.org (Or call our hotline at 215 345 7855.)

Beasts Of The Southern Wild
USA - Benh Zeitlin – 1 hr 31 min
This is an exceptional American independent feature. A six-year-old girl from the southern Delta searches for her long lost mother after her father falls ill. The world seems to be spinning out of balance as sea levels rise, strange animals appear, and a foreboding sense of apocalypse descends. This truly unique film won the Grand Jury Prize at the 2012 Sundance Film Festival.

Moonrise Kingdom
USA – Wes Anderson – 1 hr 33 min
MOONRISE KINGDOM is the much-anticipated new feature from director Wes Anderson. Set in New England in the 1960s, the film follows a young boy and girl who run away from home. Their absence turns things upside down in a wryly comedic, Wes Anderson-type way. Bill Murray and Frances McDormand play the young girl’s parents; Bruce Willis is the town sheriff; and Edward Norton plays a camp leader. Tilda Swinton and Jason Schwartzman are also featured.

Hysteria
UK - Tanya Wexler – 1 hr 35 min
A romantic comedy, set in Victorian London, about a young physician who enters a practice treating women’s “hysteria.” He is a man of science, so to help facilitate his “treatments,” he introduces the world’s first electric vibrator (of course). Then his world is turned completely upside down by the socially conscious daughter of his boss. With an excellent cast, including Maggie Gyllenhaal, Hugh Dancy, Jonathan Pryce, Rupert Everett and Felicity Jones.
MAIN ATTRACTIONS

The Intouchables
France - Eric Toledano and Olivier Nakache – 1 hr 53 min – w/subtitles
The story of two men who should never have met – a quadriplegic aristocrat who was injured in a paragliding accident and a young man from the projects who is hired to care for him. This feel-good dark-comedy is the second most successful French film of all time. Starring Francois Cluzet and Omar Sy.

To Rome With Love
USA/Italy – Woody Allen – 1 hr 35 min
Woody Allen’s latest is the story of various people in Italy, some American, some Italian, some residents, some visitors, and the romances, adventures and predicaments they get themselves into. Starring Alec Baldwin, Roberto Benigni, Penélope Cruz, Judy Davis, Jesse Eisenberg, Greta Gerwig, Ellen Page, and Woody Allen.

Ruby Sparks
USA – Jonathan Dayton and Valerie Faris
RUBY SPARKS is the story of a young writer in a slump, who creates a female character to cure his writer’s block. But when she materializes in his kitchen one day, all hell breaks loose. This enjoyable romantic comedy has a smart script and some great performances from Paul Dano, Zoe Kazan, Annette Bening, Antonio Banderas, Steve Coogan, and Elliott Gould. From the Directors of Little Miss Sunshine.

Bernie
USA – Richard Linklater – 1 hr 44 min
Richard Linklater’s latest is a cheerful account of a Texas murder case, starring Jack Black and Shirley MacLaine, embellished with real life interviews with the people involved. It’s about a charming funeral director who befriends a grumpy old woman and then ends up killing her. Its odd, enjoyable weirdness is funny – sort of a cross between the Coen Brothers and Errol Morris.

The Salt of Life
Italy - Gianni Di Gregorio and Murat Duzgunoglu – 1 hr 30 min – w/subtitles
This charming Italian film is smooth and breezy. Gianni is a middle-aged retiree who has become invisible to women. He contends with an aristocratic, spendthrift mother; a patronizing wife; a daughter with a slacker boyfriend; and a wild young neighbor who sees him merely as her dog walker. Determined to generate some kind of love interest, he tries his best to change things – yielding both funny and poignant results.

Limited Engagements
We try to play each of our Main Attractions films for a full multi-week run. Sometimes, however, we are unable to play a film in a timely or complete way. And then it becomes a question of either squeezing it in or not playing it at all. When that happens, we often schedule a film for a couple of mid-week screenings, called Limited Engagements. Make sure that you sign up for our weekly email blast, so that you don’t miss these short, last-chance screenings.
After Dark
This series is NOT about classics from the Golden Age. These films are edgier. They're profane, and violent and scary. And they were not made for the entire family. But they definitely were made to be seen on the big screen. Are they new classics in the making? You be the judge.

Forbidden Planet
1956 - 1 hr 38 min - USA - color - HD Digital
MGM - d: Fred M. Wilcox - w/ Walter Pidgeon, Anne Francis, Leslie Nielsen
This pulp-fiction sci-fi classic stars Leslie Nielsen as a starship captain who leads his crew to a remote planet inhabited by two survivors of an earlier expedition. Those survivors have discovered the secrets of a long-lost civilization.

Be an Insider: Come often and earn a free pass and more. Pick up a “Hollywood Insider” card at the start of the summer. For each film that you watch, whether Classic or After Dark, you'll get a punch on your card. Get 5 punches and earn a FREE PASS and concession voucher. Get 10 punches and earn a restaurant coupon and who knows what else! And, if you dress “in the theme” of the movie - we will give you a free popcorn. (Check our website for details.)

BRAZIL
1985 - 2 hr 12 min - USA/UK - color - 35mm
Universal - d: Terry Gilliam - w/ Jonathan Pryce, Kim Greist, Robert DeNiro
Terry Gilliam’s black comedy set in an Orwellian future stars Jonathan Pryce as a daydreaming civil servant who, through one bureaucratic error after another, is mistaken for an enemy of the state. Grimly disturbing and darkly hilarious, BRAZIL is a wildly inventive, visually arresting satire. (We are presenting Terry Gilliam’s “Director’s Cut.”)

Spellbound
1945 - 1 hr 51 min - USA - b/w - HD Digital
Selznick Pictures - d: Alfred Hitchcock - w/ Ingrid Bergman, Gregory Peck
Ingrid Bergman and Gregory Peck shine in this Hitchcock thriller about a psychiatrist who falls in love with an amnesiac patient, who just might be a murderer. With the usual Hitchcock touches, plus wonderful music and cinematography, SPELLBOUND puts a unique spin on psychoanalysis. It also features a famous dream sequence designed by Salvador Dali.

NATIONAL THEATRE ENCORE
One Man, Two Guvnors
Captured LIVE at the National Theatre, London on Sept 15, 2011.
2 hr 40 min including one intermission
A special encore presentation of one of 2011’s top performances from London’s National Theatre. This witty comedy, written by Richard Bean, is about a desperately hungry man who works for two masters and has trouble keeping things together. This modernization of Goldoni’s farce is wonderfully inventive and funny.

Goldfinger
1964 - 1 hr 50 min - USA/UK - color - HD Digital
- d: Guy Hamilton
- w/ Sean Connery
This wonderfully amusing action film may be the best Bond film of all time. Connery was at the height of his powers as the smooth and resourceful 007, here assigned to prevent a notorious gold smuggler from robbing Fort Knox. There's sexy female pilot Pussy Galore, nasty henchman Oddjob, and a deadly laser. Plus Bond's super cool Aston Martin.

This Hitchcock drama stars Laurence Olivier as an aristocratic widower, whose grief is softened by the sunniness of his second wife, played by Joan Fontaine. This uproarious “mockumentary” about a heavy-metal rock band spoofs every facet of rock ‘n’ roll -- from vacuous songwriting and half-baked album promos to pyrotechnic concerts and preening showmanship. Michael McKean, Christopher Guest, and Harry Shearer are perfect as the British rockers whose tresses and egos outstrip their talent. A wonderfully affectionate film that turns the satire all the way up to 11!

United Artists - d: Roy Ward Baker
w/ Kenneth More, Ronald Allen

The Titanic’s dramatic final hours are depicted in this straight-forward version of the 1912 disaster that took 1,513 lives. With characteristic British reserve, the film interweaves historical detail with an expert sense of storytelling that keeps the film fresh and engaging. In many ways, A Night to Remember is richer and more satisfying than any of the other Titanic movies.

Act II Playhouse presents the classic musical MY FAIR LADY, specially re-imagined for our intimate venue and featuring such memorable songs as “Wouldn’t It Be Loverly?” “Get Me to the Church on Time,” and “I Could Have Danced All Night.” Performances of MY FAIR LADY run through July 1! Next up is the comedy FREE RANGE THINKING, from the guy who brought you THE MALE INTELLECT: AN OXYMORON? “Hilarious,” “Intelligent,” and “Provocative” all describe Robert Dubac’s FREE RANGE THINKING, which runs July 18-Aug. 12. Tickets and information for all our shows can be found at www.act2.org or by calling 215-654-0200.
